(All fees and donations are non-refundable)

What will you do if the bird does not bond to you or your family and/or it bites?_____
_____

Parrots require 10-12 hours of quiet sleep time, proper food and vet care can be costly, they can be messy, loud, and destructive…. Are you ok with all of these issues?_____

Have you provided the following:

 Picture and/or video of bird cage and room(s)?

 Picture of food you plan to feed your bird?

Do you consent to possible home visit(s) by an Avian Oasis staff member, as well as providing updates regarding how the bird is doing in the future?_____

You agree to not use the bird for breeding purposes?_____

Veterinary contact information for where you will take the bird when needed:_____

You agree to RETURN the bird to Avian Oasis Rescue and Rehabilitation, if you feel you can no longer keep him or her, or in the event of your death arrangements will be made for return_____

- You understand if you adopt a bird, you will be responsible for his or her care and well being, will take the bird to the vet as needed and will not seek legal action against Avian Oasis Rescue and Rehabilitation, it's directors or president in the event of death of the bird or any other reason.
- If at any time in the future we suspect the bird(s) are not being properly cared for (or) neglected, Avian Oasis Rescue reserves the right to repossess the bird(s).
- Dog cages are for dogs, and not proper housing for birds! You MUST provide proof that you have a suitable large cage for your bird(s). This includes proper bar spacing to prevent injuries to birds, if you don't know what size bar space you should use, please just ask.
